

News Release

200 Wellington Street, Sarnia, N7T 7L2 (519) 336-1500

www.lkdsb.net

NEW FOUR YEAR TERM BEGINS FOR TRUSTEES

SARNIA – The Lambton Kent District School Board held its Annual Organization Meeting on Tuesday, December 5, 2006. Returning Trustees include Jane Bryce, Isabell Carter, David Goldsmith, Elizabeth Hudie, Carmen McGregor, Scott McKinlay, Paul Millman and James Townsend.

The newly elected Trustees joining the Board for the first time are Ruth Ann Dodman and Randy Campbell.

The Board also welcomed Bruce Stonefish as its new Native Trustee representing the four First Nations of the Aamjiwnaang First Nation, the Chippewa of Kettle and Stony Point First Nation, the Delaware First Nation and the Walpole Island First Nation.

The Trustees re-elected Jane Bryce to the position of Chair of the Board and Scott McKinlay to the position of Vice-Chair of the Board.

Jane Bryce, who represents the municipalities of Lambton Shores, Warwick and Plympton-Wyoming, has served as a school board trustee for 13 years. Scott McKinlay has served as a school board trustee for 6 years and represents the area of West, South, East, Kent.

In her address to the Board, Chair Bryce thanked Trustees for their faith in her, “I am honoured by the trust placed in me by my fellow Trustees. Together we will continue to move the Board forward, always keeping student achievement in the forefront to ensure success for all students.”

Vice-Chair McKinlay thanked his fellow Trustees for their support, “I consider it a tremendous privilege to be re-elected to the position of Vice-Chair. As a Board we will continue to keep all students first and foremost in our minds to ensure they achieve their potential. “

Trustee David Goldsmith was re-elected to serve as the Board’s delegate to the Ontario Public School Boards’ Association with Trustee Isabell Carter as the alternate.

“I am looking forward to working with the new Board of Trustees. We have talent, experience and dedication at the Board table,” remarked Director Gayle Stucke. “On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank Jane and Scott for the solid leadership they provide as Chair and Vice-Chair. Together we will continue to meet the challenges and share successes.”

- 30-

For additional information contact:

Jane Bryce, Chair
(519) 899-2619

Scott McKinlay, Vice-Chair
(519) 674-2331

Gayle Stucke, Director of Education
(519) 336-1530, Ext. 297

For reference information contact:

Trish Johnston, Executive Assistant and Communications Officer (519) 336-1530, Ext. 230

December 5, 2006

2006/2007:7