EDUCATION WEEK ACTIVITIES APRIL 30 to MAY 4, 2007

Come and celebrate Education Week with the Lambton Kent District School Board. The Ministry of Education has declared April 30 to May 4, 2007 Education Week across Ontario. Visit our schools and experience the excellence in education occurring everyday. Our theme for the 2007 celebration is Education, A Gift for a Lifetime.

Trustees, administration, staff and teachers are very proud of the students of the Lambton Kent District School Board. We truly believe that student success is enhanced through a team approach to learning. Together, we create successful educational opportunities for our students. A summary of some of the special events planned is available on the Board's website. We encourage you to visit our schools and participate in the unique happenings and see first hand the numerous accomplishments and student successes. More information on specific school activities can be obtained by visiting our website at www.lkdsb.net

Students in the Lambton Kent District School Board were invited to submit radio commercials highlighting this year's theme. Students will be heard throughout Education Week on radio stations CFCO, CKSY, The ROCK, CHOK, K106 and FOX.

Appreciation is extended to the students, teachers, staff, volunteers, community partners and Education Week representatives who contribute to continued student success.

2007/2008 Student Trustees Named

At the April 24, 2007 Board Meeting, Trustees appointed of Christine Hockin and Alyssa Kelly as the Student Trustees to serve on the Board for the 2007/2008 school year. Christine attends Chatham-Kent Secondary School and Alyssa attends Lambton Central Collegiate and Vocational Institute. Their term will begin in September 2007 and run through to August 31, 2008.

Resources Available for Parents

With the support of the Parent Involvement Funding, the Program Department has created home-reading kits for Early Years and Grade 1 students at fourteen of our elementary schools. Included with the fiction and non-fiction selections, are pamphlets titled "Helping Your Child Become a Strategic Reader Together in Education". The pamphlet outlines a variety of activities that parents may introduce to assist their child in becoming an engaged reader.
