PUBLIC SCHOOL BOARD TRUSTEES RECOGNIZE CONTRIBUTIONS OF STAFF

The outstanding achievements and significant contributions made by staff members of the Lambton Kent District School Board will be celebrated at the special ceremony on Monday, June 11, 2007. The annual Employee Retirement and 25 years of Service Recognition Program will be held at the Oak's Inn in Wallaceburg beginning at 7:00 p.m.

"This celebration provides an opportunity for the Trustees to extend their appreciation to staff members," said Chair Jane Bryce. "We appreciate the important role the dedicated staff play in the lives of our students and we want to acknowledge the many contributions they have made over the years to students, families, communities and other staff members."

A total of 103 retirees will be honoured.

In addition, the Trustees will also recognize 13 staff members who have 25 years of service with the district school board and its predecessor boards.

The Lambton Kent District School Board employs more than 3,400 staff who provide excellence in education to approximately 26,000 students in 66 elementary and secondary public schools throughout the District.
