BOARD ELECTS CHAIR AND VICE-CHAIR FOR 2011

CHATHAM - At the December 7, 2010 Annual Organization Meeting, the Board of Trustees for the Lambton Kent District School Board re-elected Carmen McGregor as Chair of the Board and Jane Bryce as Vice-Chair of the Board.

Chair McGregor, has served as a school board trustee since 2004 and represents the area of North Kent and South Lambton (Dawn-Euphemia, Dresden, Chatham Township, Wallaceburg and Dover). Vice-Chair Bryce represents the municipalities of Lambton Shores, Warwick and Plympton-Wyoming and has served as a school board Trustee since 1994.

In her address to the Board, Chair McGregor remarked on the Board's accomplishments in the area of student achievement and the provincial recognition the Board has received as a leader in the establishment of relationships with our Four First Nations. She welcomed the three new Trustees to the Board and commented, "I am confident that as a team we will continue to focus on student success and provide the environment and tools that each student needs to achieve their maximum potential."

Trustee David Goldsmith was acclaimed to serve as the Board's delegate to the Ontario Public School Boards' Association with Trustee Dodman as the alternate.

"On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank Carmen and Jane for the solid leadership they provided as Chair and Vice-Chair this year. We look forward to continued success under their leadership," remarked Director Jim Costello. "I am also looking forward to working with the new team of Trustees. Together we will improve learning opportunities for Every Student, Every Day."
