BOARD ELECTS CHAIR AND VICE-CHAIR FOR 2012

CHATHAM - At the December 6, 2011 Annual Organization Meeting, the Board of Trustees for the Lambton Kent District School Board re-elected Carmen McGregor as Chair of the Board and Jane Bryce as Vice-Chair of the Board.

Chair McGregor, has served as a school board trustee since 2004 and represents the area of North Kent and South Lambton (Dawn-Euphemia, Dresden, Chatham Township, Wallaceburg and Dover). Vice-Chair Bryce represents the municipalities of Lambton Shores, Warwick and Plympton-Wyoming and has served as a school board Trustee since 1994.

In her address to the Board, Chair McGregor remarked on the Board's accomplishments in the area of student achievement and the provincial recognition the Board has received. "We will continue to focus on student success and provide the tools that our teachers, support staff and students require to achieve their maximum potential," commented Chair McGregor.

"On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank Chair McGregor and Vice-Chair Bryce for the solid leadership they provided this year. We look forward to continued success under their leadership," remarked Director Jim Costello. "Together we will foster success for Every Student, Every Day."
