QUALIFIERS

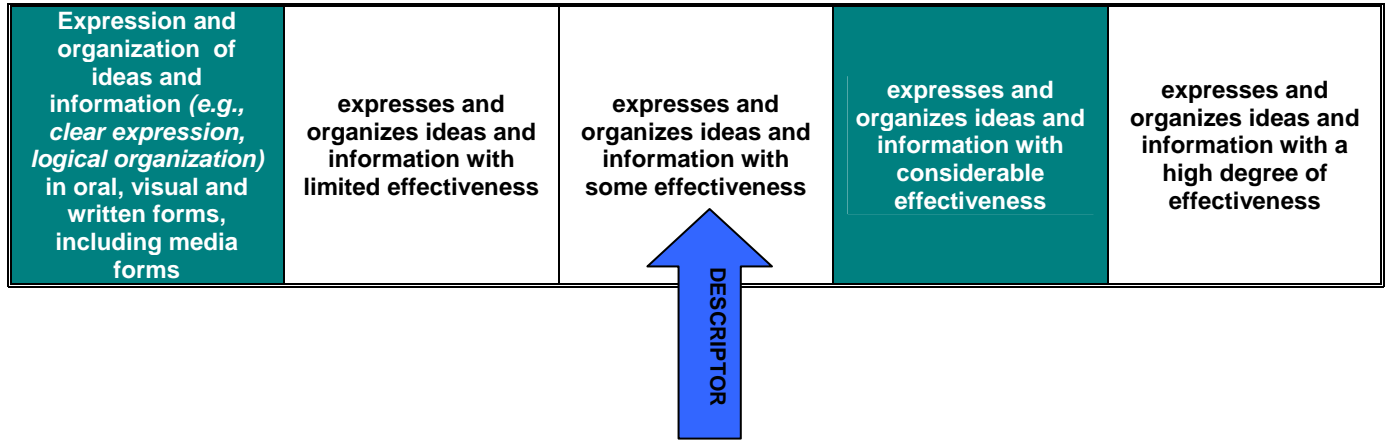

- A qualifier is used to define each of the four levels of achievement.
- The Ministry has provided the following qualifiers to use: Level 1 – limited; Level 2 – some; Level 3 – considerable; Level 4 – high degree

Expression and organization of ideas and information (e.g., clear expression, logical organization) in oral, visual and written forms, including media forms	expresses and organizes ideas and information with limited effectiveness	expresses and organizes ideas and information with some effectiveness	expresses and organizes ideas and information with considerable effectiveness	expresses and organizes ideas and information with a high degree of effectiveness

■ DESCRIPTORS

- A descriptor (e.g., effectiveness) indicates the characteristic of a student’s performance with respect to particular criteria.
- More appropriate descriptors than effectiveness may be used. See “Descriptor” handout.

COMMENT BUILDING IN 4 STEPS

Take a specific expectation and...

1. find the “look for” (e.g., clear and coherent)
2. identify an appropriate descriptor (e.g., “clarity”)
3. narrow to a task (e.g., presenting ideas in a factual oral report)
4. add pronouns / nouns

An Example:

- The Specific Expectation: 2.3 communicate orally in a clear, coherent manner, presenting ideas, opinions, and information in a logical sequence
- The rubric elements:

CRITERIA	LEVEL 1	LEVEL 2	LEVEL 3	LEVEL 4
communicates orally with clarity to present ideas in a logical sequence	communicates orally with limited clarity to present ideas in a logical sequence	communicates orally with some clarity to present ideas in a logical sequence	communicates orally with considerable clarity to present ideas in a logical sequence	communicates orally with a high degree of clarity to present ideas in a logical sequence

- The report card comment for level 3:

Suzanne communicates orally with considerable clarity to present ideas in a logical sequence.

DESCRIPTORS

* Effectiveness	Having a definite or desired effect; having the intended outcome.	useful explicit	relevant pertinent	Have you produced the desired or intended result?
