LKDSB TEACHERS DESIGNATED AS APPLE DISTINGUISHED EDUCATORS

The Lambton Kent District School Board is proud to announce that three educators have been designated as Apple Distinguished Educators (ADEs). Sharon Drummond, Learning Coach for Innovation, Ben Hazzard, Principal of A.A. Wright Public School in Wallaceburg and Jon Orr, Secondary Teacher at John McGregor Secondary School in Chatham, have all joined the ADE Class of 2015.

The Apple Distinguished Educator (ADE) Program began in 1994, when Apple recognized K-12 and higher education pioneers who were using a variety of Apple products to transform teaching and learning in powerful ways. Today it has grown into a worldwide community of over 2,000 visionary educators and innovative leaders who are doing amazing things with Apple technology in and out of the classroom.

Director Costello offered his congratulations, "The Board is very fortunate to have such dedicated educators on its team to support our technology enriched learning environment for students. On behalf of the Board, I thank Sharon, Jon and Ben for sharing their innovative approaches to education with other members of our team so we can make a difference for Every Student, Every Day."
