Superintendent Badder New OPSOA President

The Ontario Public Supervisory Officers' Association (OPSOA) announced this week that Superintendent Joy Badder is their new President. OPSOA is the professional organization representing 300 Superintendents and Directors of Education from the thirty-one English language Public District School Boards of Ontario. OPSOA advocates for public education as a fundamental right of all students in Ontario.

Joy has been a Supervisory Officer for the Lambton Kent District School Board for 11 years holding Student Achievement portfolios. She is currently the Superintendent of Education - Leading and Learning. Joy holds degrees from the University of Toronto, the University of Windsor and the Royal Conservatory of Music.

Joy is looking forward to representing not only the voices of OPSOA members but the students within our schools. Her experience and expertise will benefit the OPSOA Board of Directors and members in their work to realize the goals of the OPSOA strategic plan.

Director Costello commented, "We are proud of Joy and know that she will work hard to best serve the interests of public education and all students in her new role."
