Board Proclaims October 2, 2015 Staff and Volunteer Appreciation Day

Lambton Kent District School Board is celebrating Staff and Volunteer Appreciation Day in the public schools of Sarnia Lambton and Chatham-Kent on October 2, 2015.

“All our staff and volunteers are very dedicated and caring individuals striving to improve student achievement,” stated Chair Scott McKinlay. “On behalf of the Lambton Kent District School Board, I express our sincere appreciation to everyone.”

Director Costello added, “Our Staff are skilled and devoted professionals focused on engaging students and parents/guardians in the learning process to reach Every Student Every Day. Our Staff are recognized locally and throughout the province for providing innovative learning opportunities for students. Thanks to the assistance of our dedicated Volunteers, we are able to provide a number of unique experiences and supports to our students.”
