

LAMBTON KENT DISTRICT SCHOOL BOARD

ILC MEETING

Thursday, January 17, 2019 @ 6:00 p.m. at Sir John Moore Community School, Corunna

Present:	Lareina Rising, LKDSB Trustee; Jane Bryce, LKDSB Trustee; Everett Kicknosway, Walpole Island First Nation; Dr. Mark Aquash, Walpole Island First Nation; Mary Whiteye, Delaware First Nation; Brent Stonefish, Delaware First Nation; Minogiizhgad, Indigenous Lead; John Airey, Principal; Mike Adam, Vice-Principal; Shelley Martsch-Litt, Principal; Lisa MacDonald, Principal; Nicole Arndt, Vice Principal;
Regrets:	Karyn Byatt-Millington, Principal; Jennifer Goodall, Principal; Vicki Ware
Resource Staff:	Helen Lane, LKDSB Superintendent of Education; Bonnie Gotelaer, Recorder
Guests:	Joanne Rogers, Education Coordinator; Aamjiwnaang
Agenda Item	Details/Discussion	Action Items
Welcome and Introductions	-Trustee Lareina Rising welcomed everyone. Introductions were made around the table.
Adoption of Agenda	-Agenda was reviewed and adopted
Approval of Record of Action from	-Record of Action from November 26, 2018 approved
Reports from First Nation Communities	Delaware Nation at Moraviantown <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Brent Stonefish noted they are in the process of hiring an Education Manager - Delaware Nation education community has been engaged with the Ministry regarding funding - Delaware Nation has put together a task force in the community as they are the only First Nation currently without an education tuition agreement -The template Delaware Nation has is outdated but are hopeful to have the matter resolved Walpole Island First Nation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Everett Kicknosway stated Walpole Island First Nation is getting back up to speed from the holidays -Everett noted he has an upcoming meeting regarding reverse tuition and also noted the greenhouse is just about assembled. Aamjiwnaang First Nation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Joanne Rogers noted the professional education experience day of learning shared with LKDSB Special Education Department with Daniel Deleary was very educational and informative
Trustee: Lareina Rising	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Trustee Rising informed the committee that at the last LKDSB Board meeting, Trustee Jane Bryce was voted in as the Chairperson for the Lambton Kent District School Board - Trustee Rising congratulated Chair Bryce and thanked her for her commitment -Trustee Rising noted the Lambton Kent District School Board is in the process of choosing a new Director of Education and the four First Nations were invited to provide input for the job profile
Indigenous Lead: Minogiizhgad	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Minogiizhgad outlined the Youth Symposium allowing students the possibility to earn a credit in First Nations Local History and Culture for Grade 11 and 12 students - Minogiizhgad explained the goal of the course is to have the students extensively research a specific topic in their communities, interview a number of community members, and then create a multi-media piece that can be used as a future resource in the board. - Minogiizhgad stated there is a waitlist for the course as five secondary schools responded filling the online course

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Minogiizhgd stated work is being done to meet the deadline to apply for an Indigenous Student Leadership project which involves three other school boards, both public and catholic - Minogiizhgd shared information regarding the Indigenous Graduate Coach Pilot Program to be located at Wallaceburg District Secondary School beginning in the second semester
Superintendent: Helen Lane	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Superintendent Helen Lane described the Indigenous Graduate Coach Pilot has been designed for a graduate coach who will reach out to staff and community partners to help support the student's graduation and plan - Trustee Rising stated it would be helpful for the coach to include some planning with the secondary coordinator - Superintendent Helen Lane went to Lambton College with Minogiizhgd and met with the Indigenous education regarding supporting students as they move forward - Superintendent Helen Lane noted the Lambton Kent District School Board's Indigenous Team meets monthly to discuss ideas and events for staff and students - Superintendent Helen Lane discussed school administrator placements and the input from the First Nation representatives stating the First Nations will receive an invitation to share profile preferences. Superintendent Lane further noted that placements usually happen in late spring to be in place for fall
Reports from School Administrators	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Trustee Rising stated written reports from administrators are very helpful if sent ahead of the meeting and thanked the administrators for attending - Principal Lisa MacDonald shared Lakeroad portrays respect, inclusiveness and education for all sharing history and ideas encompassing the whole culture as a community - Vice Principal Nicole Arndt noted her staff at Rosedale has a book club studying 21 Things You Didn't Know About the Indian Act <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Vicki Ware may have resources for those needing some for young students - Principal Shelley Martsch-Litt acknowledged Lansdowne is very fortunate for all the support and resources received from Sonja - Principal John Airey stated they are continuing the Grandfather Teachings and thanked Minogiizhgd for helping to facilitate this
Other	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Superintendent Helen Lane commended administrators and noted there is pride for the journey education has taken - Superintendent Helen Lane further discussed administrative moves and the need for input from the four First Nation communities - Trustee Rising explained to the Committee that the Board has a pool of principals and moves can happen quite quickly sometimes - Superintendent Helen Lane noted knowing the qualities the four First Nations and School Councils would like to have in an administrator can be very helpful when placing principals looking for a profile on what you would want in an administrator 	Helen to have profile from School Council
Adjournment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The meeting was adjourned at 8:00 p.m.

NEXT ILC MEETING: FEBRUARY 21, 2019 --- DELAWARE FIRST NATION @ 6:00 P.M.