To whom it may concern:

I've worked with Shannon on a variety of projects over the last year and I've always been delighted with her presence. She volunteered for community art with her records project during The Gift and the crows mosaics at The Community Shop. She always brought a bright smile and was a pleasure to work with all the volunteers. How she shared her ideas, energy and materials stuck out to me. She would flow naturally from doing her own art to helping and teaching others with theirs. Shannon brings a communal spirit to our group that helps make it about the purpose. Everyone is happier when Shannon stops in.
