

Canadian Improv Showcase

Customized Dramatic Arts Workshops For All Grades & Experience Levels

The Canadian Improv Showcase has been offering onsite curriculum workshops for over twenty years. During that time they have visited more than 500 schools across Ontario, many of which they have visited multiple times.

They offer programming for all grade levels and can work with multiple grades at the same time. Every workshop is customized to meet the needs of the individual group. In addition to the drama curriculum, there are also a host of cross curriculum possibilities. A downloadable rubric is available for teacher use.

Rates are based on a time-of-year pricing policy. Discounts are offered for bookings that take place between September and December. The longer you book on a given day, the less the hourly rate becomes. They can work with multiple groups on a given day and workshop length is customized to meet your needs.

Rates:

Sept. through Dec.:	Jan. through June:
1 hour = $400	1 hour = $500
2 hours = $500	2 hours = $600
3 hours = $650	3 hours = $750
4 hours = $900	4 hours = $1000

Knights in the Classroom

Where the Curriculum Comes Alive!

The Knights in the Classroom have been offering workshops for thirteen years. During that time they have visited almost seven hundred schools across Ontario, many of which they have visited multiple times. Their programming was designed by a retired elementary school teacher with her Masters Degree in Education from O.I.S.E. at the University of Toronto. Their instructors are a mix of industry specialists and retired educators.

The goal of the Knights in the Classroom is to bring the curriculum to life through interactive, hands-on, tactile and experiential workshops and demonstrations. They offer programming for all grade levels, including sessions for multiple grades at the same time. They offer in-depth curriculum coverage as well as cross-curriculum possibilities. They include downloadable rubrics for all their programming.

For secondary grades they offer both Grade 11: World History programming as well as a collection of Stage Combat workshops for drama students.

Secondary workshops are priced for the typical 75 minute class period, however customized sessions are available.

They offer a time-of-year pricing policy offering discounts during bookings that take place between September through the end of December.
