

Lambton-Kent Composite School

Jim Keane, Principal

231 St. George St. N., Dresden, Ont. N0P 1M0

Telephone: (519) 683-4475

Fax: (519) 683-2699

Web Site: <http://lkcs.lkdsb.net>

CGG 30 – Travel and Tourism: A Geographic Perspective

Teacher: Mr. I. Avery

Textbook: Cartwright, Fraser & Gerry Pierce. TravelQuest: Travel and Tourism in the 21st Century

Expectations: This course focuses on issues related to travel and tourism within and between various regions of the world. Students will investigate unique environmental, sociocultural, economic, and political characteristics of world regions. They will explore travel patterns and trends, as well as tensions related to tourism, and will predict future tourism destinations. Students will apply the concepts of geographic thinking and the geographic inquiry process, including spatial technologies, to investigate the impact of the travel industry on natural environments and human communities.

Prerequisites: Geography of Canada, Grade 9, Academic or Applied

Course Content by Strand:

- A – Geographic Inquiry and Skill Development (throughout course)
- B – Why, Where and How We Travel (Intro unit)
- C – Sustainability, Stewardship, and Tourism
- D – Interrelationships and Trends
- E – Impacts of Change: Challenges for Travel and Tourism

Assessment and Evaluation:

Term Work (3-5 Projects, Tests, Quizzes, Assignments)	70%
Culminating Activity	30%

KICA Weightings:

K nowledge/Understanding (Facts, Terms, Definitions)	25%
I nquiry/Thinking (Atlas Study, Research/Analysis, Critical Thinking)	25%
C ommunication (Mapping, Graphing, Oral Presentations)	25%
A pplication (Use and transfer of logic, knowledge or skills)	25%

LKCS Lates and Missed Assignments Policy

Students are expected to submit all assignments within the time frame specified by the teacher. Teachers will consider extenuating circumstances when assignments are late.

If an assignment is late, 10% may be deducted per school day, up to a maximum of 50%. Once assignments have been returned to students, any late submissions may receive a mark of zero.

I have read and understood the above course outline including the new LKDSB Lates and Missed Assignment Policy.