

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES

SUBJECT: Board Investigation of Home Schooling

Background:

It is the responsibility of the Lambton Kent District School Board to excuse children from attendance at school when home schooling is provided, in accordance with subsection 21(2), clause (a), of the Education Act. However, where a board has reasonable grounds to be concerned that the instruction provided in the home may not be satisfactory, the board should investigate the matter.

The Superintendent of Education responsible for Home Schooling will investigate the appropriateness of the program if:

1. The parent/guardian refuses to notify the board in writing of the intent to provide home schooling.
2. A credible report of concern is received from a third party with respect to the instruction being provided in the home.
3. Evidence is provided that the child was removed from attendance at school because of ongoing conflicts with the school, not for the purpose of home schooling.
4. There is a history of absenteeism by the child prior to the parent/guardian notifying the board of the intent to provide home schooling.

The Superintendent or designate (generally the LKDSB Attendance Officers) will meet with the family or ask the parent/guardian to submit information about the home schooling in writing (Appendix A). In determining whether instruction is satisfactory, the following should be considered:

- 1) Is there a plan for educating the child?
- 2) Does the plan ensure literacy and numeracy at developmentally appropriate levels?
- 3) Are there plans for assessing the child's achievement?

If the Board is unable to determine from its investigation whether the child is receiving satisfactory instruction at home, it may take further action, in accordance with subsection 24(2) and/or section 30 of the Education Act. The Provincial School Attendance Counsellor will appoint an inquiry officer to conduct the inquiry.

If the inquiry determines that the student is not receiving satisfactory instruction and the Provincial School Attendance Counsellor orders that the student attend school, the school board must determine the appropriate action to be taken.

Implementation Date: November 13, 2002
