Examination Notes:

1. All exams will be written in the room where the subject is normally taught, unless indicated by your classroom teacher.
2. All textbooks and library books are to be turned in or paid for before exams are written.
3. Students absent from an examination due to illness or other unavoidable reasons should have their parents call the school prior to the time scheduled for the exam. A medical certificate or a reason acceptable to the principal must be provided or a mark of zero will be given for an exam not written.
4. The Inclement Weather Policy
  - In the event that inclement weather forces the cancellation of buses in any of Zones 5 through 8; exams at all Chatham-Kent secondary schools will be cancelled for the day and the exam schedule will be pushed back one day.
  - In the event that fog causes a disruption to transportation in any of Zones 5 through 8; exams at all Chatham-Kent secondary schools will be delayed for two hours.
  - In the event of fog, buses for secondary students in the affected zone(s) will be operated at a two-hour delay and exams will proceed with a two-hour delayed start time. If conditions do not improve, the delayed secondary routes will be cancelled, and exams cancelled for the day. A decision will be made and posted by 6:30 a.m. if buses are to be operated.
  - All buses will run at the end of the day, as normal.
5. Classes on last day of semester - If buses are cancelled due to inclement weather on the last day of the semester, Thursday, January 26, 2023, exams will begin on Friday, January 27, 2023, as scheduled.
6. When students have finished writing an exam, they must go to the study area (cafeteria or library) or leave the school. Do not loiter in hallways.
7. All students must remain in exam room for a minimum of 30 minutes. Students are to initial beside their name on the attendance sheet.
