Course Description:

This course examines communications technology from a media perspective. Students will develop knowledge and skills as they design and produce media projects in the areas of live, recorded, and graphic communications. These areas may include TV, video, and movie production; radio and audio production; print and graphic communications; photography; digital imaging; broadcast journalism; and interactive new media. Students will also develop an awareness of related environmental and societal issues and explore college and university programs and career opportunities in the various communications technology fields. Students will focus on digital photography, graphic illustration and journalism techniques culminating with the production of the school yearbook.

Required Materials:

3 ring binder, lined paper, 8GB SD Card, 4GB flash drive, ruler, pencils/pens

OPTIONAL ITEMS: camera, laptop, tablet, phone

General Areas/Units of Study:

Graphic Promotion, Illustration and Communication

Late Policy:

Students are expected to submit all assignments within the time frame specified. While teachers will consider extenuating circumstances, late students are subject to mark deductions. If an assignment is late, a penalty of 10% per school day will be deducted, up to a maximum of 50%. Once assignments have been evaluated and returned to the class, late submissions may receive a mark of zero.

Attendance & Behaviour

There is a direct relationship between students' success in a course and their attendance. Every student has the expectation of an education without disruption, but also has the responsibility not to deny this right to others. Student attendance and behaviour policies are clearly outlined in the LKCS student handbook. Classroom guidelines, computer use guidelines, and group-work guidelines will be clearly identified in the first week of class and reinforced weekly.

Teacher

The teacher can be reached by telephone at the school (519 683 4475) or by email.
